EDUCATION

National Technical University of Athens | Athens,

Greece (started at 2020)

Integrated Master in Mining and Metallurgical Engineering

Favorite subjects: Geology and Economics

University of Leoben | Leoben, Austria

In the Department of petroleum engineering I have the opportunity to study for 6 months (3/10/2022-28/2/2023) with the Erasmus+ program of my University as an exchange student.

Seminars

RM MANAGER that was organised from EIT RawMaterials Academy

Sep 2020 –2025

Nov 2020-February 2021

It was a seminar in English in which at the end of it, it was required to form a team of five participants and make a presentation about different aspects of mining problems (our subject title: Innovations in mining and recycling). This made me take and give responsibilities inside the team, as a result, I practiced my communications and leadership skills.

ADDITIONAL SKILLS
